

Why can't we just get a long?

By Jim Daily,

Why can't we all just get a long?

Why can't we put aside our differences?

Who are we to judge sin in anyone else's life?

Let's consider, we're all sinners,
"we've all been borned in sin".

Romans 3 verse 23.

Therefore we shouldn't be so quick to condemn, those who don't believe the same as we do.

You don't have to be a member of the same church as I am, just as long as we're washed in the same blood.

We can not condemn those who choose to get drunk,
smoke pot,
blow their minds on drugs,
those who live the homosexual life style,
those who choose to have an abortion,
those who choose to blow their money, and then, expect their parents to pay their bills, and buy their food for them,
those who would take another's life,
those who have unforgiveness in their heart,
those who choose to reject the Word of God,
for a better truth in their own mind, and,
so on, and so forth.

We don't know their hearts.

They might really be sincere people, after all that's all that matters anyway, so to judge them would be trying to play God.

For, every body's good,
no, body's evil,
we all just do bad things.

As long as we are washed in the blood of Christ we are borned again, and it doesn't matter how we live after that.

The Bible says to just love one another,
not to tair one another down,
but thoes who would judge sin in anyone elses life
are doing just that.

We are to love, and
accept others life styles even if we know they are wrong,
to do any thing less would be unloving.

For the Bible says we shouldn't judge anyone, or anything.

Many Churches of Christ would condemn thoes who would listen to, or use instrumental music in warship to God.

The same churches would have a microphone in their building now wouldn't they.

Shure they would.

That's what I was thanking.

The same churches would let babies go to hell because they will not sprinkel little babies at birth, so
the baby will be saved as well.

Most Churches of Christ don't care enough about their own souls must less about the souls of thoes around them.

The churches of Christ will not preach the truth,
they just want to tickel the ears, and grab the money.

The Churches of Christ are called to live Holy, but not to be high, and mighty,
and certenly not to be judgemental.

Matthew 7 verse 1 says,
"Judge not less you be judged"

Therefor we can not judge anyone else so lets just put aside all of our little diffrences, and just learn to get a long.

Their's good in all churches,
and their's bad in all churches.

Their's saved in all churches,
and lostin all churches.

One church is just as good as another.

God sent His Son to die for all churches, not just one, but all,

therefor one church doesn't have a special holt
on truth, that another didn't get.

Therefor we have know right to judge each other.
only God can do that.

We can only love, and accept thoes who are out in sin, for us to do anything less would be sin.

In other words to point out sin in another's life
would be a sin, point blank.

We are not God so therefor we can not go around playing God, but to judge anyone, or anything would be trying to play God.

Only God can judge, not man.

Leave judgment up to God, and we'll be a lot better off.

We're just to accept others,
never to judge them, or their sin.

Only God is perfect, and only God knows each of our hearts.
therefor we have know bisness to play God,
and judge anyone our selvs.

God is our judge, not man, and
for us to judge each other it would be a sin.

God loves you,
and I, love you to.

Good day.
